SCO VisionFS 3.1 on SCO OpenServer Release 5.0.4+

SCO VisionFS 3.1 is provided in media image format on SCO OpenServer Release 5.0.4+.

Installation

1. Download the VisionFS tar file, to a temporary directory on your UNIX host, for example /tmp.
2. Log in as root on the UNIX host.
3. Change to the temporary directory.
4. Untar the media images, by typing:

tar xf vfsos5.tar

5. Use the Software Manager to install VisionFS from the media images. For information on installing software in the Software Manager, refer to SCOhelp.
6. Follow the instructions on your screen.
7. When Setup is complete, you can remove all files from your temporary directory.

   3.10.905

   After installation, make sure you read any README files installed in the /usr/vision/docs directory.

8. If you accepted the default installation options, then VisionFS will not be started by the install. You must start VisionFS from the UNIX command line:

/usr/vision/bin/visionfs start

/usr/vision/bin /visionfs password --wizard start

Install the Registration Keys as described in the "SCO Software Registration" booklet.

You will need to type in your Registration Keys exactly as shown below.

SCO System ID: zbwogtbogo

License/Serial Number	Registration Key	Product Family
2EF036330	rrtzwswwgx	SCO OpenServer

As you type your Registration Keys, check the following:

- Make sure each key is typed correctly.
- Make sure there are no leading or trailing spaces, or extra characters.
- Make sure that you type the "l" (el) character rather than the "1" (one) character.
- Make sure that you type the "o" (oh) character rather than the "0" (zero) character.
